Welcome to Life Group Sunday! Today we are going to discuss how none of us are called to minister unto ourselves alone. We live in a community, often work in community, and we fellowship in a church community every Sunday.

We have three main points to our message which dovetails nicely into the make-up of how our Life Groups are designed.

1. Paul asks for Prayer, and we all need to be all about prayer.
2. We are called to lead a life of obedience.
3. We are called to abstain from idleness.

How do we overcome life's difficulties and the sin(s) that so easily trips us up at times? Get involved! Life Groups help facilitate our ability to encourage others, it fuels faith with the Word of God, and it fosters better friendships and confidence to live lives that are pleasing to God. That's some of the best outcomes any ministry could hope to achieve. So with that in mind, how can anyone argue that...

Any Time is the Right Time for Life Groups!
