God has a plan, a plan for His creation and a plan for us. As His children, He wants us to be active participants in His plan. This requires us to 1) Recognize that He is God and more importantly we are not, 2) aligning to His plan and 3) obedience to His word.

God does not need us to provide for Him. We are called to give because it teaches us discipline, obedience, aligns our motivations and desires with the will of the Father and prepares us for the opportunities God will provide us to serve Him.

Giving is the only thing we are told is permissible to test God and if we do, He will pour out a blessing on us.
